

BBA'S BUNTS COLLEGE OF HIGHER EDUCATION (NIGHT COLLEGE)
JUNAGAR, NAVI MUMBAI

REPORT ON KARGIL VIJAY DIVAS

Date: 05/08/2019

One of the prominent wars between India and neighboring country Pakistan, the Kargil war took place between May 3 to July 26, 1999 in the Kargil district of Kashmir and elsewhere along the line of control (LOC). Kargil war is also referred as Operation Vijay because Indian army cleared Pakistani army and the intruders from the Kargil Sector. During the war 527 Indian soldiers and officers bravely lost their lives. To honour the Kargil war's heroes, who laid down their life for the country, 26th July is celebrated as "KARGIL VIJAY DIWAS" in all over India every year.

The Principal delivered lecture on Kargil Vijay Diwas

Bunts Night College celebrated Kargil Vijay Diwas every year on July 26, and today it is 20th anniversary of Kargil Vijay Diwas. The day is celebrated with great echo as Indian armed forces swept Pakistani troops from Kargil and got excellent victory over Pakistan. On this day as per the circular of University of Mumbai and higher education department stated that there should be a screening of the movie "URI (A surgical strike)". As per the instruction of University, BBA'S BUNTS COLLEGE OF HIGHER EDUCATION (NIGHT COLLEGE) arranged the screening session of the movie "URI (A surgical strike)" in college auditorium .

The celebration starts with 2 minutes silence to pay the tribute to the soldiers of Indian army who sacrificed their lives during the war. Principal Dr.S.S Bhandari inaugurates the function by explaining brief history of Kargil war. After principal's speech the screening of movie was setup by Prof.Gokul Choudhary. "URI (A surgical strike)" screening was started sharp 6:15 pm and was finished at 8:30 Pm. After the screening the vote of thanks delivered by Prof.Dattatray Bhosale. The program was concluded with national anthem.