Samvidhan Diwas Celebration

A Report

Constitution Day is known as National Law Day as well as Samvidhan Divas is celebrated in the country on 26th November every year to commemorate the adoption of the constitution of India.

The prime minister of India Shri Narendra Modi ji laid foundation stone of B. R. Ambedkar memorial at the Indu Mills compounds in Mumbai on 11 October, 2015. On this occasion the prime minister of india announced that 26 November will be observed as a Samvidhan Divas every year. Finally the government of India declared 26 November as Constitution Day on 19 November 2015 by a gazette notification. The main aim of celebrating Samvidhan Divas is to make aware about our constitution among the young generation.

On this occasion student's council of Bunts College of Higher Education, Night College arranged the program systematically. First of all the Principal garlanded B. R. Ambedkar and lighted the lamp.

As it was also the day of terrorist attack in Mumbai, the Principal, teachers and all the students paid high tribute to martyrs. One minute silence was also observed in memory of lost lives. Most of the students were present for the celebration. Many students expressed their views about the constitution in beautiful manner. The Principal thanks to cultural in charge prof. Jyotsana, N. and General Secretary, Shivanjali P. for arranging the program in wonderful manner. The program was sum up with National Anthem. Students were also given chocolate.
