Savitribai Phule's Birth Anniversary Report

Birth anniversary of Savitribai Phule, was celebrated on January 3, 2025 in BBA'S Bunts College of Higher Education (Night College). The first female teacher and the social reformer of India will be remembered in the history of India. The event commenced with a floral tribute to Savitribai Phule's portrait, followed by an inaugural address by the college Principal.

Students presented poems illustrating her life and struggles, emphasizing her role in establishing the first school for girls in India and advocating for gender and caste equality.

The Principal Dr. S.S. Bhandari delivered motivational speech, discussing the relevance of Savitribai's work in contemporary society and encouraging students to follow her ideals. He also suggested to read the books based on Savitribai Phule's life.

The celebration concluded with a vote of thanks by Ms. Reshma from TYBCOM and a collective pledge to uphold Savitribai Phule's values of equality, education, and social justice. The event not only paid tribute to a remarkable reformer but also inspired the students to contribute toward building a more inclusive and equitable society.
