Constitution Day was celebrated with great enthusiasm in Bunts College of Higher Education, Night College on 26th November 2024 to commemorate the adoption of the Constitution of India. On this occasion, a guest lecture was organized by the college. All the students, teachers and the Principal attended the program. Asst. Prof. Ms. Maya Bodake welcome the guest. The Principal and the Chief Guest lighted the lamp and garlanded Bhimrao Ambedkar, the father of Constitution. Principal felicitated Adv. Anjali Binjola and also highlighted the significance and importance of Constitution Day. Adv. Ms. Anjali, the chief guest and the expert delivered lecture on Constitution Day.

She covered various aspects of constitution day. She also highlighted the Fundamental Rights of the people. She mentioned that there are particular groups who, for various reasons, are weak and vulnerable or have traditionally been victims of violations and consequently require special protection for the equal and effective enjoyment of their human rights. She spoke about additional guarantees for persons belonging to these groups. She focused on groups that are especially vulnerable to abuse of human rights; groups that are structurally discriminated against like women and groups, internally displaced persons, national minorities, indigenous peoples, migrant workers, disabled persons, and so on.
